

Press Release Austin – August 30, 2019– Austin Amateur Golf and The Rudy's I-35 Cup Austin Committee are proud to announce Greg Smith as the Captain for the Austin team who will be playing the 11th Annual Rudy's I-35 Cup at Fair Oaks Ranch in Boerne on November 2 & 3rd.

Greg Smith is an Austin native graduating from Lanier High School in 1983 and attended college locally at Texas State University. Greg is currently a VP of Business Development at The Grayhawk Company – Risk Management and Commercial Business Insurance. Greg is married to Morgan Smith.

Greg was a member of the 2017 Rudy's I-35 Cup Austin Team that played at Commande Trace where he went 2-0-1 in his matches. Some of Greg's past golf accomplishments include being a Club Champion at Spanish Oaks CC and three-time Club Champion at Gleneagles CC.

The Rudy's I-35 Cup is made up of Austin's best mid-amateurs & Seniors against San Antonio's best mid-amateurs and Seniors. The two-day event will include Four Ball, Foursomes and Singles. The Rivalry before the Match kicks off the weekend on November 1st at Fair Oaks Ranch and is a fundraiser scramble for First Tee of Greater Austin & Africa New Life and The First Tee of San Antonio.

For additional information about the Rudy's I-35 Cup or current player rankings you can go to www.austinamateurgolf.com